
SAYS HE GAVE BEER TO CEMETERY MEN; HELD FOR 'PIGGING'

Denying charges of selling liquor without a license, Joseph Titch, peddler, said yesterday he was merely serving beer in his residence on lower Ogden avenue to members of the Hebrew Cemetery association, which was in session. His hearing was set for May 1. He furnished $100 bail bond. He was arrested by Detective John McDonald.
