

SOCIETY CLUBS MUSIC

Mrs. Harrison Gave Second of Series

MRS. WILLIAM HARRISON'S second bridge luncheon of a series of three given yesterday in her home on East First street, was an enjoyable social event. A buffet luncheon was served after which the game was played at four tables. Favors were won by Mrs. Henry H. Myers and Mrs. J. C. A. Crosby.

Three Interesting

Talks at Club Meeting.

The main topic of the meeting of the department of education and the home of the Twentieth Century club of which Mrs. J. H. Crowley is chairman, yesterday afternoon in the library clubroom was 'Mrs. H. H. Phelps' paper on St. Louis county, in which she traced the development from the earliest times to the present. Mrs. T. A. Armstrong spoke on the sources from which Great Britain draws her mineral wealth. Miss Cady gave a short talk on the wonderful library at Alexandria. She mentioned the system of the early days in cataloging the library, which was of great interest.

Folsom-Sanborn Bridal Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Sanborn of Minneapolis entertained at a bridal dinner last night at their home in honor of their daughter, Miss Charlotte Sanborn, and her fiance, Earle F. Folsom of Duluth, whose marriage will take place tonight. Fourteen guests were present. A number of out-of-town guests will attend the wedding and some were among the dinner guests last night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Allen, Jefferson street, entertained at a dinner-bridge at Ye English inn last night for eight.

A party of 20 young people entertained at a dinner-dance at the inn last night, music for the dance being furnished by the Esther Gomberg orchestra.

The recital of lily readings given last night by Miss Lucille Shook, pupil of Miss Mary Sheagreen, at the Flaxen Conservatory of Music and Expression, attracted an audience that filled the recital hall. Miss Rose Elliott, who assisted Miss Shook with a number of vocal solos, was also well received.

Mrs. Sidney Dardie (Enid Freeman) of Chicago, who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Freeman, 1204 East Second street, left last night for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Smalley, 1725 Jefferson street, and two sons, Curtis and Jack, left last night for Minneapolis. Mr. Smalley is making the trip on business and will return Monday. Mrs. Smalley and children will visit in Waterloo and Des Moines before returning to Duluth.

Miss Alberta Park, supervisor of music in the schools at Chisholm, is the guest of Miss Helen Kane, 423 Sixteenth avenue East, while attending the teachers' convention.

Miss Edith Wachtell of Chicago left last night for her home after visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wachtell, 708 Woodland avenue, since New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Welsh left last night for Chicago.

Mrs. Garnet McKee of Chicago, who has been in Fort Arthur, was in the city yesterday and left last night for her home.

Mrs. George H. Lord, 1023 East Eighth street, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kalland of Brainerd.

W. A. Covey of this city and his daughter, Mrs. Hugh Clully of Minneapolis, will leave tonight for Mississippi City, La., where they will remain until April.

Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Wagner have as their guests for a few days Mrs. Wagner's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hartley of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., who were recently married.

The Christian Endeavor society of First Presbyterian church will have its annual dinner and election of officers at 6:15 o'clock Wednesday night in the church parlors.

Miss Anna Schugel of Virginia is in the city, visiting James H. Rowe, 708 East Second street.

Miss Goldie Marks of Ironwood, Mich., who has been visiting in Chicago, Milwaukee and the Twin Cities for over two months, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Edith Karon, 29 East Second street, for 10 days before returning to her home.

Mrs. Agnes L. Atwood left yesterday for Stillwater, Minn., where she will be the guest of Mrs. George H. Atwood for a few days.