

SUPERIOR NEWS

CONDENSED FROM TODAY'S
— SUPERIOR EDITION —

SUPERIOR OFFICE: 1510 Tower Ave.
Broad 221—PHONES—Ogden 346

GROCERS HOLD BANQUET.

About 250 grocers and their wives were present at the annual banquet and reception of the Superior Retail Grocers' Protective Association held in the gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A. building last night. A program following the banquet consisted of several addresses and musical selections.

CHANGES STORE LOCATION.

Martin Erickson, who conducted a hardware business in Billings park for several years, will open his new store in the West End, Duluth, today. John A. Johnson will open a store at the place vacated.

STACK FILES PAPERS.

Judge J. S. Stack filed nomination papers yesterday as a candidate to succeed himself as justice of the peace of the Fourth ward. Isadore Dorf also filed nomination papers as a candidate for county supervisor from the same ward.

LEADER ISSUES PAMPHLET.

Pamphlets giving information and answers to all probable questions of prospective bond buyers, are being issued by County Clerk W. J. Leader regarding the bonds proposed to be issued by Douglas county for the erection of a new courthouse at a cost of $350,000.

FEBRUARY SNOWFALL HEAVY.

Almost as much snow fell in the month of February as during the rest of the winter, according to the weather records on file in the office of the city engineer at the city hall.

GIVEN PRISON SENTENCE.

A sentence of one year in the state penitentiary at Waupun was given Walter Muma by Judge Charles Smith in superior court yesterday after the defendant had confessed to a charge of larceny.

FACE "PIGGING" CHARGE.

Swan Hagerson and Noble Rhue were arraigned in municipal court yesterday on a charge of blind pigging. They pleaded not guilty and a hearing was set for March 7. They were released under a bail bond of $300.

HEARING IS CONTINUED.

Jacob Kezewski was arraigned in municipal court yesterday on a charge of receiving stolen property. At the request of the defendant the hearing was continued until March 14.

MAINTAIN ARREST AVERAGE.

Although February was a shorter month by three days, the 16 arrests made for alleged blind pigging during the month equaled the number made in January. The total number of arrests made in February was 87.

CARPENTER BEATS COOPER.

Real varsity spirit, with a large following of rooters, yell masters and conferences over officials, was displayed at the game yesterday afternoon between Carpenter and Cooper school basket ball teams, fighting for first place in the City Grade School league. The Carpenters won by a score of 15 to 14, and as a result the teams are tied for the leadership of the league.

TO ADDRESS STUDENTS.

"Do You Know What Becomes of the Ore That Goes Through the Docks at Superior?" will be the subject of the fifth lecture to be given by A. T. Conrad, principal of Nelson-Dewey high school tonight to students of his night school.

RANTALA GIVEN $300.

The jury in the case of Victor Rantala against Douglas county, after being out from 11:45 o'clock in the morning to shortly before 6 o'clock, reached a verdict giving the plaintiff $300.

START INJURY SUIT.

The personal injury suit of Catherine Schauer against Anthony Metzger was started in circuit court yesterday afternoon.

ATTEMPTED HOLD-UP CHARGED.

Charged with an attempted hold-up, Orin Fusel demanded an examination when arraigned in municipal court yesterday. A hearing was set for today.