Medals awarded to the A. E. F. for all kinds of exceptional service total 6,290, according to a report received at the local army recruiting office by Sgt. Samuel Wiener, in charge. Of this number, 78 were medals of honor, 941 distinguished service medals and 5,371 distinguished service crosses. These do not include the many honor medals bestowed upon American soldiers by officers of our allies.

All men serving in Siberia or European Russia will receive the Victory medal with battle clasp, showing by the colors in what countries they have served, Sergeant Wiener has announced.
