

Club Sponsors Plays of Pupils in Drive to Better Dramatics

As a start in its campaign for cleaner dramatics, the Women's club of Superior will sponsor, "Why the Chimes Rang," "Hour Glass," and "Overtones," three short dramatic plays to be presented at the Superior high school auditorium, Wednesday night. The cast has been selected from members of the dramatic classes of the school and they will be coached by Miss Alma Lortz.

As the "Wiseman," in the "Hour Glass" Miss Marie Ennis will carry a difficult role. Miss Lillian Anderson and Miss Sarah Litman, as the "Fool" and the "Angel" will interpret parts calling for a great deal of dramatic talent. In "Overtones," a play depicting a dual personality, Ruth Brown and Marguerite Finkle, will carry the roles of cultured society women. Others in the casts are Henrietta Beglinger, Lillian Nelson and Isabel Hanson.
