

Y. M. C. A. DORMITORY MEN TO HOLD ANNUAL BANQUET

The dormitory men of the Duluth Y. M. C. A. will hold their second annual banquet tonight in the "Y" auditorium. One hundred and twenty-five members are expected. Homer Fulton, attorney, will be the principal speaker. A varied musical entertainment has been provided.

The program will officially start with a tin band procession through the dormitory hallways which is intended as a rouser for the men to be in the lobby in time. The bugle calls for assembly and chow will be blown by Charles Segelbaum. Lee M. Larson will be the toastmaster. John F. Centanino, Daniel M. Teague, Orville Anderson, Morris Cohn and Joe Friley will give the musical selections of the evening.

The women of the Delta-Alpha class of the First Presbyterian church will serve dinner.
