

City in Tabloid

Succoth Is Observed.

Observance of Succoth, the Feast of Tabernacles, was begun last night by Jews of Duluth. The holiday will continue today and tomorrow with morning and evening services in Adas Israel synagogue, Third avenue East and Third street.

Depot Project Discussed.

Several members of the newly appointed union depot committee of the Commercial club met with Howard Elliott, chairman of the board of directors of the Northern Pacific railroad, at the Kitchi Gammi club, Saturday noon. The proposition of a new union depot for Duluth was discussed, but no action was taken, according to A. C. Weiss, chairman of the committee.

Admits Blindpig Charge.

Sandra Niemi was arrested Saturday night charged with keeping a blindpig at 517 Garfield avenue. She admitted to police that she had sold liquor in the house. Her husband claimed to know nothing of the illicit liquor sales, saying it was done while he was working.

Samaritans in Social.

Beta Council, Modern Samaritans, have a basket indoor picnic at Woodman's hall, Twentieth avenue West and First street, tonight.

Wanders From Poor Farm.

Joe Liebowitz, 50, inmate of the county poor farm, was picked up by Patrolman Stovern last night and lodged in the city jail. It is believed he wandered away from that institution Sunday and was lost. He will be returned today.

Dr. Mary McCoy announces the opening of her offices at 404-406 New Jersey Building. Office Phone 1766 Melrose. Residence Phone 328 Hemlock.—Adv.