

City in Tabloid

---

Peat Company Incorporated.

The Standard Peat & Fuel company filed articles of incorporation with the register of deeds yesterday. The firm will engage in the manufacture and mining of fuel products. It is capitalized at $100,000. Incorporators are Irwin Johnsted, Superior; D. Gotkin, and M. Seppanen, Duluth.

---

Wolf Trapper Lands Two.

John M. Schuler was paid $30 by W. H. Borgen, county auditor, yesterday for bounty on two wolves he trapped in the town of Rice Lake. Twenty wolves have been sent into the auditor this week.

---

Prowlers Disappointed.

Prowlers entered the home of Albert Polinski, 2929 East Superior street, and procured $3, according to a report made to the police yesterday.

---

Pigging Case Continued.

Ivar Pylkkanen, charged with keeping a blindpig received a continuance of his case until Nov. 15 in municipal court yesterday. A dismissal in the case of John Lindroos, charged with selling intoxicating liquor, was made on motion of H. E. Weinberg, city prosecutor.

---

Engineers Discuss Laws.

A discussion of laws which affected the engineer passed by the last session of the legislature took place at the session of the Duluth chapter of the American Society of Engineers at the Lincoln club last night. Municipal projects also were discussed. L. M. Mitchell, president, presided.

---

Girl Hit by Truck.

Injuries necessitating stitches in her head were received yesterday morning by Miss Marie Kelly, age 19, 193 Lemon street when she was hit by a truck driven by Frank Crispigna, 5904 Grand avenue. She was injured at Seventh avenue West and Superior street while on her way to work. She was taken to St. Mary's hospital in a private automobile and later removed to her home.

---

And Officials Meet.

The divan and past potentates of Aad Teple met yesterday at the Commercial club to formulate plans for the ceremonial to be held Saturday Nov. 12 at the Shrine Auditorium.

---

Rabbi Will Lecture.

Rabbi Israel Lebendiger will speak tonight at services in the Hebrew Institute on "Reward and Punishment."

---

School Board to Meet.

Directors of the board of education will meet tonight to open bids for a $400,000 bond issue. An expert to make a city-wide survey of school conditions will be appointed.

---

Larceny Suspect Held.

Fred J. Sandboe, charged with second degree grand larceny, will be tried Tuesday. He is alleged to have forged a check of $50 made payable to Fred Dickson.

---