

Women to Campaign for China and Near East Relief Saturday

The women's church organizations in the city are making extensive plans for a campaign for the China Famine Relief fund and Near East relief which will be held all day Saturday. Booths will be erected in the downtown districts and those wishing to swell the fund will be given an opportunity to buy a tag.

The midgets, who are passing the week in the city, as well as the Boy Scouts have offered their assistance. Each committee chairman is choosing her own workers, and at a meeting of the various chairmen to be held tomorrow morning at the Y. W. C. A. they will draw for the places where they will have their respective headquarters. These will be located at the large retail dry goods stores, the depots, courthouse, postoffice and at several of the hotels. The wholesale districts will be canvassed during the noon hour.

The committee chairmen who are working to make the campaign a success are Mesdames H. Y. Joseph, H. B. Fryberger, James Maker, Earl Bradley, H. A. Dowe, E. J. Collins, Frank Cokefair, W. H. Locker, G. W. Pond, S. Pollains and Miss Esther Abrahamson.

KIWANISANS MEET TODAY.

At the meeting of the Kiwanis club in the Commercial club this noon, W. H. Crago will talk on "Three Years in South Africa." There will be singing by the quartet and a goodly bit of boosting for the June trip by boat to the national convention of Kiwanians at Cleveland.
