

YOUNGER DULUTH RUSHES TO RIDE TRIBUNE 'BIKES'

Boys and Girls Swarm Into Subscription Race With- out Losing Time.

Announcement in yesterday morning's News Tribune of the big cleycle contest drew several hundred responses from eager youngsters in spite of the fact that the opening date of the competition is June 1.

Five minutes after the first edition was off the press Saturday night one little fellow came in, seeking to be registered. He was. Howard Michaud was a close second, with five subscriptions already signed up on his way to the goal of 35. He said he will get his Ranger bike this week. And it looks as if he will, too. Howard lives at 2014 East First street. He's 10 years old. His brother, Harold, also figures on getting into the race. The bike looks good to him.

Come and See Bikes.

Samples of both the boys' and girls' Rangers will be on exhibition at The News Tribune office tomorrow morning. The girls are urged to register for the contest without delay.

From now on the bicycle department will require all entrants to come to the office—ask for the bicycle department—and after registration, receive blanks and printed instructions.

Nathan Greespan, 600 East Sixth street, age 14, was among the first to register yesterday morning and asked permission (and got it) to start soliciting (Sunday) as he wanted to get the jump on the other fellows and be the first boy to get his "Ranger."

Everett Steinman, 923 Seventh avenue East, age 12, and Max Chersonsky, 141 East Eighth street, age 12, started a little fight in the office to see would could get waited on first. Everett won.

Little Fellow In.

James Chessen, 524 Fourth avenue East, age 10, is the "littliest" fellow to register so far, but Jimmy says "you don't have to be a big fellow to get 35 orders and win a Ranger."

Every boy or girl, young or old, turning in 35 subscriptions before Sept. 1 will receive free of charge whatsoever, a Ranger bicycle valued at $50. The News Tribune plans to give away 500 Rangers. Get into the contest, everybody, and get a bike free!