

Duluth Man Prompts Formation of Eveleth Credit Association

EVELETH, July 31.—Speaking before a large gathering of local business men, George M. Peterson, secretary of the Retail Merchants association of Duluth, was instrumental in creating sufficient sentiment to form an Eveleth Retail Merchants Credit association.

Those present signified a desire to affiliate with the state organization.

Claude Mather was elected chairman and Sam Ellis secretary of the business men, who will proceed to organize.

The chairman appointed the following membership committee: August Bratolich, Mural Masinter, E. J. Banks and Emil Franks; constitution committee, Harry Rabinowitz, W. J. Cahill and J. J. Brince.
