

Rabbi Silver Stirs Audiences

P. D. C. LAUNCHES CAMPAIGN
250 SHARES ($12,500) OF STOCK SOLD

The glowing reports of the magnetism and oratorical ability of Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver that had preceded him, the accounts that described him as leader among the younger American Rabbis proved to two large audiences in Minneapolis and two in St. Paul that the reports not only were not exaggerated but if anything were underestimated.

Especially notable was the address at Temple Israel Wednesday evening. In a masterful way Rabbi Silver described the suffering of the European Jews during and since the war; the insecurity of their position even now; the hope with which they look to Palestine. He spoke of what Palestine means in the way of Jewish self-respect; as the source from which new Jewish teaching and cultural-moral inspiration could come for a world in need; as a haven of refuge for the hopeless persecuted Jew; as a source of vitalizing force for more prosperous Jews.

And then he indicated how we can help Palestine and its rebuilding. It was an address replete with learning and permeated with Jewish ideals.

Even the appeal that followed, an appeal made by Rabbi Silver himself, was not an appeal of the usual kind. That was evident also at the luncheon on Wednesday afternoon. The very committee were at a loss. If it was as an investment that the Rutenberg Plan for harnessing the Jordan was being urged, then the usual methods of luncheon-appeals could not be employed. There could be no harrowing tales, no appeals for self-sacrifice, not even the theatrical "inspiration" from the givers and subscribers.

And yet, with even these "handicaps" in stock-selling the incomplete figures at hand indicate that at least two hundred and fifty shares have been sold, giving the local Palestine Development Council an initial subscription of fully a third of its quota.

Temporary Organization

The temporary officers for Minneapolis are: Dr. Moses Barron, chairman; Dr. Thos. Ziskin, secretary; Irving H. Robitshek, treasurer, and an executive committee of some of the most active of the workers, old and new, for Palestine. As soon as those who contemplate purchasing shares (at Fifty Dollars per share) have been heard from a committee will canvass those who have expressed their interest in the matter, and a short campaign will be waged to complete the local quota, $40,000.

Preliminary Subscriptions

The larger subscriptions announced on Wednesday include the following: Ten shares each: Chas. Silberman, Peter Markus, Arthur and Sig Harris; Benj. Lifschitz, Benj. Licht; Fligelman brothers; Weisberg and Kaplan; Five shares each: Morris Kantar, Dr. Geo. J. Gordon, S. Brochin, John Friedman. A large number of subscriptions for four, three, two and one shares are also in. A complete list of the results of the campaign will probably be published in our next issue. Each subscription must be accompanied with one-fourth of the cost of the stock in cash.

A finer combination of idealism and business, of the romantic and the practical, of building Palestine and private profit, than is involved in the Rutenberg plan, is difficult to imagine.
