

City in Tabloid

"Farm" Prisoner Escapes.

James McClenaghan, recently sent to the work farm from district court, escaped last night, according to a report from Frank Ward, superintendent, to police headquarters.

Clothing Store Robbed.

Burglars who gained entrance through the basement of the Oak Hall clothing store obtained $35 in small change, according to police. The basement door was opened, and police are of the belief that the robbery was committed by persons intimately acquainted with the establishment.

School Vacation Ends.

Vacation ends tonight for all school children of Duluth. Night schools will reopen at the school buildings on Wednesday night.

Mail Receipts Heavy.

The Christmas rush was more extensive last week than ever before. Archie Powers, superintendent of mails, said yesterday. Although the mailing was done earlier and let up on the day preceding Christmas, the after-holiday mail receipts were exceptionally heavy.

To Study School Needs.

Dr. M. G. Neal of the education department of the University of Minnesota will meet with the school board building committee tomorrow to study plans concerning the city-wide survey. He will leave for Minneapolis in the evening, but is expected to return to Duluth in two weeks to complete the work.

Negro Lecturer to Speak.

Roscoe Simmons, prominent negro lecturer, will speak in Duluth soon. It was announced by a committee from the Calvary Baptist church, which has been appointed to complete the arrangements. The meeting will be open to the public, it was announced.

1922 "Danced" In.

A New Year's dancing party was given by the Hebrew Ladies' society Saturday night in the Odd Fellows' temple.

County Club to Meet.

The St. Louis County Development association will meet Jan. 10 at the Chamber of Commerce. Fred Besette, author of the Besette law, and M. J. Thompson, superintendent of the Northwest Experiment farm, will address the meeting.

Wed at Institute.

The marriage of Henry Gershgall and Miss Sarah Jane Polinsky was solemnized last night by Rabbi I. Lebendiger in Hebrew institute auditorium, 310 East Third street.