

Hibbing Picks Delegates to School Speaking Event

Hibbing, Feb. 15.—(Special.)—Frances Silliman, a sophomore, and Louis Eisenberg, a senior, were chosen at the elimination oratorical and declamatory contest at the Lincoln high school auditorium yesterday. They will represent Hibbing at the district contests which will be at Virginia, March 24.

Eisenberg won first place, Monroe Lippman, second, and Bernard Little, third. The declamatory contest for girls was held in the afternoon. Miss Silliman won first, Pearl Codel, second and Lorraine Moran, third.

Monroe Lippman, who won the range extemporaneous contest several weeks ago, left this morning with Miss H. A. Samuels, public speaking instructor, for Minneapolis where he will represent the range in the state contest.
