genius of the Ziegfeld Foliles has passed, leaving the theatrical world in mourning.

Fiorenz Ziegfeld, 1868-1932, glorifier of the American girl, died unexpectedly at a hospital here last night.

Since the day in 1907 when the foliles were first born out of his imagination, the great New York producer lived in a period of the theatre which he made epochal by light drama such as none other ever before had concelved. And so he died.

He lay in a bed of the Cedars of Lebanon hospital, not far from the film plants of Hollywood, where many of his proteges, Will Rogers, Eddle Cantor, Marilyn Miller, Marie Dressler, Marion Davies, Lilyn Tashman, Ina Claire, Mae Murray, had come to continue the fame with which he first endowed them.

He said the debts were just debts and the only reason for urging a reduction or cancellation of them would be "in the interest of the people of the United States."

Borah proposed that the world conference should have authority to deal with reparations and debts, disarmament, re-establishment of the gold standard, stabilization of silver in the Orient and possibly other questions. "With the settlement at Lausanne," with the settlement at Lausanne, and there the war guilt clarse, and other changes in the treaty will come along."

WASHINGTON, July 23 (A.P.)—
Secretary Hyde today moved to supply Jobs to thousands by approving apportionment of the $120,000,000 provided by the relief bill for emergency construction on the Federal-aid highway system. Differing from the usual funds which must be matched by state moneys, the emergency appropriation may be used by the states to match the annual Federal aid. The $120,000,000 is to be repaid over e period of 10 years beginning in 1938 by regular deductions from rerular Federal-aid apportionments.

CUTS RURAL COUNTY LAND VALUATIONS 22 PERCENT

Reduction of about 22 percent in valuations of land in San Diego county, outside the eight incorporated cities and towns, was announced last night by James Hervey Johnson, as-night by James Hervey Johnson, assessor.

The cut, he said, amounts to $6,083,940, making a total land valuation for this year of $21,764,755 ascompared with $27,848,705 for 1931.

New buildings, with a valuation in excess of $1,200,000 have been assessed and added to the previous valuation of $8,852,875, boosting the total assessed valuation for this item to $10,138,310.
