BODY OF VICTIM IS IDENTIFIED

Mrs. Ada Altman Had Prepared for the Worst

CORONER HOLDS NO INQUEST

HUSBAND OF THE UNFORTUNATE WOMAN HEARTBROKEN.

Glad, However, That the Remains Have Been Recovered. Jewish Funeral.

The friends of the Altman family in Duluth will read with interest the following from the Houghton, Mich., Minister Gazette, concerning the late Mrs.

Altman:

The remains of Mrs. Ada Altman, wife of B. Altman and one of the few who met death in the wreck of the steamer Bon Voyage, were found on the shores of Lake Superior about five miles from the ship, and were brought to the city last evening and are now lying at Bloy's undertaking establishment, from which they will be placed in the general parlor, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The remains will be laid at rest in the Jewish cemetery at Lake View.

There was no occasion of a mistake in the identification of the remains. On the person were found papers which proved conclusively that it was Mrs.

Altman. The contents of the papers and money also showed that the unfortunate woman evidently prepared for the worst. A copy of one of the receipt-books was found the money, $90 in all, one 20-dollar bill and four ten dol-ars. This was done up in a handkerchief. In the ledger book a number of receipts were found wrapped up in a certificate membership in the order of the Lady Maccabees. The certificate was marked 'normal membership' in Duluth Lodge, No. 1. Enclosed in this bundle was a bunch of paid bills, all made out in the name of B. Altman, the husband. There were in good condition.

The remains were in a bruised condition. They had evidently been in the water a long time since the fire and the ashes look as if they had but recently been washed ashore. All but one hand was out of the water. The body was first identified as Mrs. Altman. A man named Boden, who was on the shore looking for agates, reported the find to the Calumet water works and Coroner Fisher and Undertaker Bloy left at once for the place. The body was about a quarter of a mile from the Tamarrack water works and between that place and this city. A Jew with some Hebrew blood they viewed the body at the undertaker's last evening and they will have charge of the funeral. The husband of the undertaker was watching over the body last night. He is completely broken down over the affair, but was glad that the body of his wife had been recovered.
