Age 57, a passionate advocate for people with disabilities, a dedicated career counselor and public servant, a loving wife, an incredible mom to three, stepmom to two, and nonna to two more, passed into the embrace of the Lord on Friday evening, July 15, surrounded by her loved ones. Lisa is survived by her husband, Bruce, her three children from her first marriage: Nicholas and Bethanie Mangigian; Grace Simon and her husband Matthew; her parents, Patricia and Harry Alatchanian; her brother, Gary Alatchanian and his wife Jieyu and her children Kimmily and Forest; Bruce's children Caitlin Lumpkin and CJ Bartley, as well as Caitlin's husband James and their children Oliver and Quinn. She will be remembered by her many close friends, who she treasured to an impossible extent. Her faithful dog, Artie, will miss his mom as much as any of us. Lisa Marie Bartley left an indelible mark on everyone she knew, and will be missed so, so deeply. In lieu of flowers, Lisa invited friends and family to donate to the National Cholangiocarcinoma Foundation (<https://cholangiocarcinoma.org/donate/>) and to the Cancer Support Community of Ann Arbor (<https://cancersupportannarbor.harnessapp.com/wv2/donate>).
