

HENRY S. BLUMBERG, DEAD HERO, WON SERVICE CROSS

A distinguished service cross, won by the late Henry S. Blumberg, first lieutenant, One Hundred and Twenty-seventh infantry, has been received by Lieutenant S. Wiener of the Duluth recruiting office and will be presented by him to Lieutenant Blumberg's mother, Mrs. Carrie Blumberg, 2115 Twenty-second street, Superior as soon as she can be located.

A portrait of Lieutenant Blumberg was last week presented to the state normal school by the students, in memory of his days there as an instructor. He was killed Oct. 4, 1918, during the heavy bombardment which preceded the advance of the Thirty-second division near Verdun.
