love of his life Rena Resnick, and became brother-in-law of Dr. Robert and Lois Resnick. Max and Rena's marriage was a model romance for 53 years for everyone who was fortunate to witness it. Max always put his family first and was very proud of his three children Jonathan, Alison and Sheila and their spouses Temima, Sol and Ari and his 6 grandchildren, Jake, Uriel, Ben, Julia, Avalie and Ethan. He had many nieces and nephews who he enjoyed spending time with. He enjoyed many winter sports especially skiing. Anytime he saw flurries he would mention that it was time to hit the slopes. He was a dedicated member of Agudath Israel synagogue (now Kehillat Beth Israel) and attended many Shabbat services over the years. He served on the board of the Juvenile Diabetes Association and was President of Parliament Lodge of Bnai Brith. He also enjoyed swimming and fitness classes at the JCC, painting and music lessons. He was an avid reader and very informed about current events and would love to engage in an intellectual conversation about any topic. He will be sadly missed by everyone who knew him. Funeral Service will be held at the Jewish Memorial Chapel, 1771 Cuba Avenue, on Wednesday, December 12, at 2 p.m. Interment at Jewish Memorial Gardens, 2692 Bank Street. Shiva will be held in the 'Community Room' at 80 Sandcastle Drive on Wednesday and Thursday from 2-4 and 7-9p.m. and at the Cohen residence, 1109 – 80 Sandcastle Drive, on Friday from 2-4p.m. and on Sunday and Monday from 2-4 and 7-9p.m., with afternoon and evening Services. In Memoriam donations to the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation or to Hillel Lodge appreciated.

Max was my real estate lawyer back in the 70's.
I found him to be a kind and decent gentleman and an honourable man. i was proud to call him my lawyer.
I will miss him. he was a good man

My deep sympathy to Max's family. Even though I did not know Max very long, when we encountered each other in the lobby, hall or elevator at Sophia 1 Condominium, Max always had a lovely smile. I shall miss a good neighbour.
