

Mona Crohn

Mar. 04, 1953 ~ Jun. 09, 2026

Mona Lynn (Held) Crohn— age 73, passed away peacefully, with her husband Aaron holding her hand, on Tuesday, June 9, 2026, in Minneapolis, MN. Mona was born on March 4, 1953, in Minneapolis, MN, to parents Jack and Nancy Held. Mona attended St. Louis Park High School and was actively involved in BBYO. After graduating from high school in 1971, Mona attended the Minnesota School of Business where she earned her Business degree and later was the keynote commencement speaker.

Mona met Aaron Crohn in high school through BBYO in 1969, and they married in 1973. They were high school sweethearts and best friends for 57 years. On June 3, 2026, Mona and Aaron celebrated their 53rd wedding anniversary. They created a loving and welcoming home in Plymouth, MN and enjoyed raising 4 children. Mona and Aaron worked together in their family businesses for over 30 years. Mona was passionate in her love for her family, many nieces, nephews and cousins.

Mona had numerous close friends, some for over 50 years. She took great pleasure in entertaining and celebrating graduations, birthdays, weddings and showers. Her favorite holiday to host was Thanksgiving, for which she is legendary. She enjoyed attending her children and grandchildren's games, recitals, and performances. In the Spring, Mona was thrilled to attend her eldest granddaughter's Bat Mitzvah.

Mona and Aaron loved to travel to Mexico and all over the world. Mona's "happy place" was their home in Florida. Mona loved entertaining and driving her golf cart, especially with her grandchildren, even though she did not golf. On Mother's Day, May 2026, Mona celebrated with her children and grandchildren in Florida.

Mona is survived by her husband Aaron of 53 years of marriage; mother, Nancy Held; siblings, Howard Held and Cindy Held Tarshish (Jon Tarshish); and sister-in-law, Elisabeth Crohn; her loving and caring children, Amie Crohn Hirsch (Daniel Hirsch), and grandchildren Gregory and Naomi, Scott Crohn (Ashley Crohn), and grandchildren Addison and Olivia, and Paulette Crohn Hanin (Jacob Hanin), and grandchild, Juliet. Mona was preceded in death by her daughter, Gina Rose Crohn; father, Jack Held; in-laws, Paula and Siegbert Crohn; and brother-in-law, Norman Tolchiner. Heartfelt gratitude and sincere thanks to Dr. Peter Argenta of U of M and his staff, Jackie, Maron, and Laura, who extended her life for an additional year, allowing her to travel with Aaron to visit their children and grandchildren. We are forever grateful for the care she received from them to give her a good quality of life. Our gratitude also to M Health Fairview Southdale, 8th Floor Nurses and Aids for the quality care she received in her final days.
