

M. KASTRINER DIES; PIONEER

Aged West Duluth Merchant Succumbs After Short Illness.

Morris Kastriner, aged 61 years, pioneer resident of West Duluth, died yesterday morning at his home, 818 North Central avenue, after a few weeks' illness. Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, from the family residence, and interment will be in the Temple Emmanuel, Woodland cemetery. Rabbi Maurice Lefkowitz will officiate.

Mr. Kastriner is survived by his widow and a sister, Mrs. R. Sallinger of New York city. Mr. Kastriner was one of the best known and most widely respected residents of West Duluth, where he lived for the last 27 years. He was the senior member of the firm of Kastriner & Neumann, which has been in business at 210 North Central avenue, ever since Mr. Kastriner's arrival in the city. Before coming to Duluth, he was in business for several years at Aberdeen, S. D., and originally came from New York.

Mr. Kastriner was an active member of the West Duluth Commercial club, and was always much interested in the civic and municipal affairs of the city. He was affiliated with the Euclid lodge No. 198, A. F. & A. M., Duluth chapter No. 59, also with the Royal Neighbor fraternity, and Old Hickory camp, No. 1555, Modern Woodmen of America.
