

A Mourning Household.

Little Artie Leopold, who has just seen eight summers, was the life of the family of A. F. Leopold, and was beloved by everybody who knew him. Yesterday at 5 p. m. he lost his life. He was playing with two other children at the end of the breakwater off East Superior street, when he fell in. There was no one near enough to save him and he was drowned. Ten minutes after his body was recovered in six feet of water. Dr. McComb tried to resuscitate him, but his efforts were futile. Mr. and Mrs. Leopold have the sympathy of their many friends in their great bereavement.
