CAPT MALONEY

One of Grand Forks' Pioneer Citizens is a Victim of a Fatal STROKE OF APPOLLPHECY

From an Attack Early Yesterday Morning He Never Rallied and

Died at 8:30 Last Evening—An Interesting Sketch of His Career as a Navigator on the Red and Other Rivers of the Northwest—Universal Sorrow at His Untimely Death.

Capt. Maloney is dead. Staring are these sad words for countteless friends and acquaintances whose eyes and hearts have seen his smiling face and heard his friendly and genial voice for many, years. He was the subject of much commentary by men of all walks of life in Grand Forks and many other places.

Capt. Maloney was born in Canada near Montreal in 1812, and died at 8:30 last evening, aged 76 years. He was married thirty years ago to the estimable lady who now survives him. He had been engaged in navigating the great rivers of the northwest for many years. At one time he was one of Grand Forks' earliest settlers. During the last few years of his life he was making the rounds of the Upper Red and White rivers for the Duluth and Miss Rica, and was representing the department in the interests of the Mn. Mich. and Charle., of this city. The death of Capt. Maloney will be a sad blow to the entire community in their bereavement. The city of Grand Forks will extend its deepest sympathy to the family and friends of the deceased.

A full account of the death of Capt. Maloney will be published in the local press on Friday morning.
