

OBITUARY

Bernard Bryan McIver

APRIL 14, 1924 - DECEMBER 8, 2011

IN THE CARE OF

First Memorial Funeral Services

Passed away on Thursday, December 8th at the age of 87. Survived by his loving family, wife Trudy, son Bryan, daughter Pat (Dave), Grandchildren Shaun (Vanessa), Kevin, Great Granddaughter Mikayla, Carol and his sister Pat Arcand.

He was predeceased by his son David, mother Harriet and father Bernard. Barry was a fine person as kind a man you would ever meet. A son of a farmer he could make all manner of things grow. He had magnificent vegetable gardens at the original family property on the corner of Benvoulin and KLO Roads in Kelowna. His well laid out plots were bountiful with robust tomatoes, cucumbers, strawberries, yellow beans and an asparagus patch unlike any other. He served in the RCAF at the end of the Second World War as a Flight Sergeant. He was a carpenter and a millwright by trade and a loyal member of the IWA. He could fix anything and build everything including the family home still located on Benvoulin Road. Following a full days' work at the Kelowna plywood plant he would labour long into the night month after month until the house was completed. Barry skillfully applied his inventive mind to making special devices to assist his disabled son David who was a quadriplegic. Barry and Trudy were a team providing lifelong personal care for David. They sustained him through many physical and health challenges until he passed away at age 53. Barry was studious and hardworking with a tremendous curiosity
