Obituary for Charlotte Moses

CHARLOTTE MOSES, age 95, formerly of Minneapolis, passed away of cancer on March 9, 2023 in Vancouver, Washington. She was preceded in death by husband Harold, and parents Blanche and Corky Finkelstein. Survived by children: Chuck Moses (Mary) and their children Laura Woodroffe (Jesse) and Katie Moses; Pat Moses; and Sandy Moses (Jeff Jackson) and their children Lindsay Jackson-Moses and Jonas Jackson-Moses, plus many loving family and friends.

Charlotte had many passions in her life, many of which she came to after retirement at age 75 as assistant to Rabbi Max Shapiro of Temple Israel. She was a bridge life master, and loved teaching newcomers to the game. She loved to travel and took numerous trips throughout the world; among her favorite destinations were Egypt, Paris, England and an African safari.

Charlotte also volunteered as an usher and in the gift shop at Temple Israel, and as a greeter at both the Pathways Healing Center in Minneapolis and at the Southwest Senior Center.

A memorial service will follow this spring. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions are preferred to Temple Israel, Minnesota Conservation Volunteer, or the donor's choice.
