Seymour A. Robinson, Age 83 of Minneapolis and formerly of Sioux City, Iowa. Preceded in death by parents, Jack and Jeanette Robinson and granddaughter, Jami Marks. Survived by loving wife of 63 years, Sybil; children, Jeffrey Robinson, Jill Marks and Andrew and Jill Robinson; grandchildren, Jeremy, Jonah and Jesse Marks and Talia and Leah Robinson; sisters, Barbara Ettinger and Marge Mark; brother-in-law and sister-in law, Mickey and Carol Orren; and many other relatives and friends.

Seymour was a former Lieutenant, J.G. who served on a destroyer in the Navy during WWII. He saw action in the Pacific Theatre, including the battle of Iwo Jima. He graduated from the University of Minnesota and was the founder of Robco Corporation, a successful and highly respected manufacturer's representative agency based in the Twin Cities. Throughout his life he was an avid outdoor sportsman and big game hunter, world traveler, rode with the Shrine White Horse Patrol and enjoyed music and the arts. After his retirement Seymour served as an arbiter for the National Arbitration Board and won a blue ribbon at the Minnesota State Fair for his unique food booth. He was on the Temple Israel Board of Trustees and was one of the founders of the Neighborhood Involvement Program. Seymour had a wonderful sense of humor and loved to laugh at stories, especially his own.

Memorials are preferred to the Jami Marks Fund at Temple Israel, The Robinson- Marks Mental Health Fund at Jewish Family and Children's Service of Minneapolis or the donor's favorite charity.
