

JOSEPH D. SATTLER

DIES IN MILWAUKEE

Formerly Resided in Duluth.
Was Manager of Frei-muth Store.

Joseph D. Sattler, age 51, for 30 years a resident of Duluth, died of heart disease Sunday night in Milwaukee, Sattler had moved from Duluth to Wisconsin city last January.

Mr. Sattler at the age of 19 entered the employ of his brother-in-law I. Freimuth and then became manager of the I. Freimuth store. He had charge of the advertizing department of the store until about a year ago when ill health forced his resignation.

Following a rest he became associated with the Milwaukee Knitting Mill company and shortly after moved his family to the Wisconsin city.

Surviving him are a widow, a daughter, Marie, now in Grand Forks, N. D.; two brothers, J. B. and Emanuel of Duluth, and a sister, Mrs. I. Freimuth.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed.
