

https://www.logandaily.com/obituaries/g-lucille-savey/article_2beb793f-1565-54c3-913c-5cef7634ff48.html

G. Lucille Savey

Mar 2, 2006

LOGAN – G. Lucille Savey, 88, Logan, Ohio, died unexpectedly Monday, Feb. 27, 2006, at her residence.

Born July 27, 1917, in Coal Grove, Ohio, she was the daughter of the late James Gordon and Bessie (Bostic) Price. She was the widow of the late Walter Edward Savey, who passed away April 17, 1967.

Mrs. Savey was a homemaker. She was a member of Immanuel Methodist Church in Logan.

Surviving are one daughter, Kay Ann (Gordon) Bourgin of Logan; four grandchildren, Steve (Melissa) Bourgin of Sugar Grove, Ill., Mike (Barbara) Bourgin of Athens, Ohio, Donna (Mike) Kinne of Battle Creek, Mich., and Mindy (Shawn) Flaughter of Mays Lick, Ky.; one great-grandchild, Evie Bourgin of Sugar Grove, Ill.; one brother, Gary Price of Lucasville, Ohio; and one sister, June Drummond of Logan.

She also was preceded in death by one daughter, Elaine Ruck; a sister, Dorlene Wonn; and four brothers, Gordon, Charles, George and James Price.

A funeral service is 2 p.m. Friday, March 3, at the Roberts Funeral Home, Logan, with the Rev. Gerald L. Frazee officiating.

Burial is in Oak Grove Cemetery, Logan.

Friends may call from 5 to 8 p.m. today (Thursday, March 2) at the funeral home.

To plant a tree in memory of G. Savey as a living tribute, please visit Tribute Store.
