

Monroe J. Shanedling, 77, formerly of Virginia, died Tuesday in a Minneapolis hospital. Prior to moving to Minneapolis two years ago he was manager of the Quality Shop, a women's clothing store, from 1924 until 1973. He attended the University of Minnesota and New York University and was a graduate of the University Pennsylvania Wharton School of Business. He served two terms as the president of the Virginia Chamber of Commerce and was an initial member of the Virginia Municipal Hospital Commission. He was active in the Arrowhead Community Concerts Association and promoting the construction of the Hotel Coates, St. Louis County Infirmary and the former Lookout Mountain Ski Project. Surviving are his wife, Ruth; a daughter, Mrs. Felix Phillips, and a sister, Mrs. Phyllis Ribnick, all of Minneapolis. Services will be at 1 p.m. Thursday in the Hodroff Funeral Home, Minneapolis.