

LOUIS S. SHER, 83

Former Vineland resident

Louis S. Sher of Troy, Mich., a talented woodworker, died Saturday in Cherrywood Nursing Home, Sterling, Mich. He was 83.

Born in Worcester, Mass., he lived on Grandview Avenue in Vineland until moving to Troy 16 years ago. Prior to retirement, Mr. Sher worked as a former manager of Vogel-Ritt Inc. of Vineland.

A gifted woodworker, he taught woodworking and shop several years ago at the Troy High School, and had built the ark, which houses the congregation Torahs, for the Troy Jewish Congregation.

Mr. Sher was a member of the Congregation Shir Tikvah.

Survivors include his wife, Lee (Yacknitz); a daughter, Barbara Gash of Bloomfield Mich; a Dr. Paul of Millville; eight grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be conducted at 11 a.m. Wednesday in Roosevelt Memorial Park, Trevos, Pa.

Shiva will be observed at the home of his son, Dr. Paul Sher, 401 Main St. Millville.