

HIBBING BUTCHER DIES FROM HEART TROUBLE

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

HIBBING, March 19.—Phillip Siegel, who has been a resident of Hibbing for but one week, coming from New York to take a position in the butcher shop conducted by his brothers on Pine street, died this morning following a brief illness.

Heart trouble was given by the attending physician as the cause.

The deceased was 44 years of age and leaves a widow and family in New York. He had intended moving them to this village in the near future.

The body will be taken to Superior where it will be interred in the Jewish cemetery.
