Sadie Silverman and her twin, Bessie, were born to Jacob and Sophie Silverman on 4 Jan 1886 in Lund, Sweden. The family moved to Chicago about 1890, and in 1892 they moved to Bessemer, Michigan, to take advantage of opportunities for commerce with the mining and logging boom. Sadie graduated from high school there in 1903 and underwent training to be a teacher. She taught in Eveleth, Minnesota, and later in Douglas, Arizona. After retiring, Sadie moved to Marshfield, Wisconsin, where she lived with her sister, Bertha Silverman Josephs. Sadie died there on 9 May 1976, and was buried in the closest Jewish cemetery, which was in Duluth.
