

Marvin Slutzker age 89, formerly of Binghamton, N.Y., passed away peacefully at home in North Port, FL. October 20, 2015 surrounded by his loving children. He was predeceased by our mother Elizabeth, his beloved wife of 60 years. He is survived by his children Lawrence Slutzker and fiancée Ilene Shnitzler of New Jersey, Karen Muller of Sarasota, FL., David Slutzker and wife Diana of Clearwater, FL., Rebecca and Edward Webb of North Port, FL., Ed was like a third son and had a special place in Marvin's heart, his sister Marceline Yonaty and husband Gavrielle of Binghamton, brother Mitchell Slutzker and wife Ann of Binghamton, and many grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces and nephews. Marvin proudly served during W.W.II in the Navy in the Pacific. He was a former member of Beth David Synagogue, Binghamton. He was a lifelong member of the former Philetus Lodge Masonic Lodge #1023. Marvin was a kind, gentle, caring man and a loyal friend and father who cherished his family, who had a positive outlook on life and would help anyone in need. We will greatly miss our father and friend.

Those wishing to donate in his memory may consider any charity benefiting homeless Veterans or active service members. He was buried Thursday in Beth David Cemetery, Conklink, NY. Military Honors were provided by the U.S. Navy and the Broome County Veteran's Memorial Association.

Please sign his guestbook at www.hefuneralhome.com. Services provided by the Hopley & Eschbach Funeral Home

 Service Information \(/obituary/Marvin-Slutzker/services\)