ROSA STEIN, 76, DIES; MOTHER OF WAR HERO

North Wales Woman Passes Away After Being Ill A Month

FUNERAL SUNDAY

Mrs. Rosa Stein, widow of a Civil War veteran, and the mother of two men who served in the World war, one of whom lost his life in action, died yesterday, after a month's illness.

Mrs. Stein, who was seventy-six, had been making her home with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lukens, of North Wales. Her health had been failing for two years or more.

She was the widow of George Stein, a Civil War who died about fifteen years ago. She had been in North Wales living in North Wales for the past forty years.

Her son, Walter Stein, was one of the North Wales youths to be killed in action during the World war. He met his death on November 8, 1918, just three days before the end of the war. He had served with Company B 312 Infantry. After the war he was buried with military honors in the Lansdale cemetery.

A second son, Albert Stein, now in the plumbing business in North Wales, also served in the war, Battery A Eighth Field Artillery.

Mrs. Stein was an honorary member of the American Legion Auxiliary., of North Wales, and her death is the first to occur among the five Gold Star mother in that community.

Surviving are the following children; Charles, of Philadelphia; Harry, Albert, and Julia Lukens, of North Wales. The funeral will be held on Sunday
