“ To Patti, Barbara, Marty and Mitchell,
Please accept my deepest sympathy on the loss of your mother. I have such wonderful memories of my growing up in St. Paul and spending great times with the Swadens. Our parents were great friends and did many things together. My sister-in-law, Kathy Moore called me tonight to tell me the news. I hope you all get this message and share it with everyone that knows me. My love and thoughts to all your family.

“ Marty and family,
I first met Jessie many years ago in my optical shop in Highland Park...My Aunt Lenore Greenberg introduced her to me, and it was pretty obvious why these two sweet and gentle ladies were friends; they were sweet---and gentle. One of the beauties of having special parents is that their children often inherit their folks' priorities. How proud she must have been of all of you---and you of her. At this difficult time, surround yourselves with loved ones---they insulate us from the cold.

Thinking of you all...
