

BREVITIES.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday by County Clerk Flagstead to the following: E. W. Colton and Madeline Meyer, Superior; Charles J. Johnson and Hilda Anderson, Superior; J. E. Garrison and Mary Johnson, Superior.

Roy Koehler says that when he asked for a dish of ice cream at the Wisconsin Candy Kitchen yesterday he was given an ice cream soda. He objected, he says, but declares that although he tried to reason the matter out with the proprietor, the latter refused to make the exchange and finally ejected him. Paul, who is only 15 years old, swore to a complaint charging Bendsay with assault and battery. The candy man will be arraigned in court this morning.

The funeral of Hans Nelson, who was drowned at Billings Park on Sunday, will be held from the Danish Lutheran church to Greenwood cemetery at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. Nels Damskov assisted by Rev. N. J. Lockrem will conduct the services.

Attorney H. C. Wilson and Col. H. A. George left last evening for Milwaukee, where they will attend the annual convention of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias. Mr. Wilson is the representative of Nemadji lodge of this city.

The remains of Maurice Tetenier, who died Saturday evening, have been interred at the Jewish cemetery. Mr. Tetenier is survived by a widow and six children, residing at 709 Tower avenue.

Ernest Schuster, proprietor of a saloon on the Wisconsin Central road near Hines' station, has been made defendant in a suit to enforce payment for 5,000 feet of lumber used in the building. The action was instituted by A. E. Philbrook and is scheduled for trial in the municipal court.

The funeral of Andrew Jacobson, who was drowned at the Ohio coal dock on Saturday night will be held from the Swedish Lutheran church at Billings Park to Graceland cemetery at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.