DEATH CLAIMS MOTHER OF JOHN D. TURNBULL

John D. Turnbull, financial secretary of the local steamfitters' union No. 426 residing at 1112 East Fifth street. returned from Fergus Falls Wednesday evening with the body of his mother, Mrs. Jessie Turnbull, who died there Tuesday.

Mrs. Turnbull was the widow of William C. Turnbull, a well known member of the steamfitters' union, who was electrocuted at the city pumping station at Lakewood, nearly four years ago. His death was a terrible shock to Mrs. Turnbull, from which she never fully recovered.

A short time ago an abscess developed on her brain and she was sent to Fergus Falls for treatment where she died. She is survived by three sons, John William and Herbert Turnbull.

The funeral was held from Stewart's undertaking establishment yesterday afternoon. Interment was at Woodland cemetery.
