Carole M. Ungar

OBITUARY

Ungar, Carole M., formerly of Palm Beach, and currently Delray Beach, and before that Cincinnati, Ohio, passed away on Tuesday, January 20, 2009, after a prolonged illness. She was 75. Carole is survived by her loving husband, B. Andrew Ungar, better known as “Budd”, and three loving stepchildren, Gary, Nancy and Jill Ungar. They were looking forward to their 37th anniversary this coming summer. She and Budd had lost her only child, Kimberley, from a diabetes illness, at age 51, a year and a half ago. Carole had retired from her career in Cincinnati, Ohio, where she was the evening news anchor on the NBC-TV affiliate, and also had her own talk show, WOMEN USA, and MOSAIC. Before that, she had been a TV weather girl in Connecticut, then did many TV commercials in New York City. They had ultimately, after retiring from their respective occupations, moved permanently to Florida, where Carole and Budd met through mutual friends 37 years ago. She will be missed by her family, as she was loved and admired by all who knew her. Services will be held at the Temple Sinai, at 2475 W. Atlantic Ave., in Delray Beach. Date and time not yet set. Any donations will be appreciated to your favorite charity, or to an animal shelter of your choice.
