law, Roberta Weber, all of blessed memory. Herb is also survived by his brother, Phil (Chana) Weber, his nephew Charles (Laura Bishop) Weber, his niece, Sara (Marc) Warren, brother-in-law Larry (Ann) Berle and several first cousins. Herb was native of St. Paul, MN and a proud alum of St. Paul Central High School and the University of Minnesota. He was a journalist by training, and spent many years covering news, sports and politics as a writer and editor for United Press International, serving in their local bureaus in Minneapolis, MN, Buffalo, NY and Des Moines, IA. He was also an amateur historian who loved to talk about the past, with a particular emphasis on what should have been. (see the outcomes of the 1965 World Series; the 1968 presidential election; Super Bowls IV, VIII, IX and XI; and the 1984 presidential election). Funeral service 2 PM Wednesday, January 19, at Adath Jeshurun Congregation, 10500 Hillside Lane, Minnetonka. Registration/masks required. Shiva 7 PM Wednesday, January 19 via zoom. (Please email zoom1@washburn-mcreavy.com for registration, livestreaming, and zoom links). Burial will be private. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial contributions to the Linda Weber Hesed Fund at the Adath Jeshurun Foundation (<https://www.adathjeshurun.org/foundation-funds.html>) or the charity of your choosing.
