SIX HUNDRED HEAR SERMON.

About 600 persons, double the attendance of last year, attended the baccalaureate services at Superior high school yesterday afternoon. Principal C. G. Wade of Superior high school, Principal A. T. Conrad of Nelson Dewey high school, Rev. H. F. Perry, who gave the invocation; J. G. Moore, superintendent of schools, and Rev. A. Theodore Ekblad, who delivered the sermon, wore caps and gowns.

HOLD WOLLER FUNERAL.

The funeral of Harry Woller, 206 Tower avenue, who died at a local hospital Friday morning, was held from the LeSage undertaking rooms at 8 o'clock yesterday morning and from the Jewish synagogue at 8:30. Interment was in the Hebrew cemetery.

DEPLORES SALOON'S RETURN.

"The mayor and the real estate men who favored the return of the saloons should provide me with meal books to give out to the unfortunate men who will waste all their money for drinks after the first of the month," W. A. Roycraft, superintendent of Lake Superior missions, declared yesterday.

SHOULD LET SONS ENLIST.

"Everyone should be willing to give his or her sons to the United States and be willing that they should go to Europe," declared Rev. A. O. Britton in a sermon on "The Destiny of America" at the Norwegian-Danish Methodist Episcopal church yesterday morning.

FAVOR DR. KALLEN.

Dr. H. M. Kallen of the University of Wisconsin, candidate for the Jewish congress, was given a majority of 154 votes over his opponent, Mrs. Joseph Jastrow, by Jewish voters of Superior yesterday.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT.

Haug Olson's career as a warrior culminated quickly when he was arrested by Special Policeman Isaacson Sunday morning charged with assault and battery. He is alleged to have started the row on a street car.

GRADUATES GIVE PLAY.

"Fabola," a playlet concerning the catacombs, was presented by the graduating class of St. Louis parochial school at the church last night.

RUSSELLS WIN.

Fifteen innings were required for the Russells Bros. team to defeat South Superior in a game at South End yesterday. The score was 12 to 11.

HOPE WINS TOURNEY.

By hitting the pigeons 54 times out of 55 shots, Oscar Hope won first place in the shooting tourney conducted by the Fulton Gun club at Thirty-third and Tower avenue yesterday afternoon. Dr. E. Charbonneau was awarded second place.

EXPECT ALL TO MARCH.

"We don't want to see any able-bodied man on the sidewalk next Thursday night at the Flag day parade," is the sentiment adopted by the Ilks and voiced by Chairman John D. Mahon, chairman of the parade committee last night. "We're going to make a place for every one who wants to march and only women with small children will be excused. We expect all others in the parade," he said.

DENOUNCES SLACKERS.

Slackers were denounced and all loyal citizens were strongly urged to do their greatest services for their country during the war in an address delivered by James A. Flaherty, supreme knight of the Knights of Columbus at a meeting of the local lodge in its club rooms yesterday afternoon.

OLIVER CLUB TO MEET.

A plan for the postponed open house meeting of the Oliver Commercial club will be made at a meeting Friday night. It is expected that a date will be set when the New Duluth Commercial club, Superior Rotary club and the South Superior Commercial club will be guests of the Oliver organization.

BOARD WILL MEET.

A meeting of the board of education to discuss repairs for all the schools of the city during the summer vacation will be held at the board offices tonight.

ADDRESSES YOUNG MEN.

Prof. C. M. Palmer delivered an address at a meeting of young men at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon, the last of the Sunday afternoon meetings to be held until fall.

CHILDREN GIVE PROGRAM.

Children's day exercises were held at First Methodist church yesterday instead of the regular Sunday morning service. Ten were graduated from the cradle roll into the primary department.

CLUB WILL MEET.

A meeting of the South Superior Commercial club will be held in its rooms Wednesday night. Final arrangements will be made for the Eighth ward to have a large delegation in the Flag day parade.

RECRUITS 11 MEN.

Lieut. J. P. Clemens of the machine gun company of the Third Wisconsin infantry returned yesterday from Rice Lake, where he obtained 11 recruits to bring the company up to its full strength of 74 men and four officers.

MANY TAKE "LOOP TRIP."

A number of automobile parties that exceeded everyone's expectations made the "loop trip" through the Twin Ports and over the interstate and steel plant bridge yesterday, residents of Oliver said.
