GABRIEL YANOWITZ OBITUARY

Gabriel Yanowitz
11/04/1991 - 8/18/2021

Resident of Vancouver, WA

With deeply broken hearts we announce that Gabriel Yanowitz died tragically on Aug. 18 of an accidental drug overdose at the age of 29 in Vancouver, Washington. He leaves behind his grieving parents Jerry Yanowitz and Suzanne D'Arcy , his brother Jake, grandmother Donna Yanowitz, a loved and loving partner Emilie Sorensen, and young son Dax.

Gabe was born in Oakland and went to Oakland Hebrew Day School, Joaquin Moraga Intermediate School, and Campolindo High School in Moraga. He was a sociable and happy kid. He had a heart of gold, was good-natured and smart with a sly sense of humor. He was also a risk taker, always racing towards the edge. He was a young man who loved fast cars and faster motorcycles. Gabe briefly attended college but was unsure if that was the right path for him so worked a series of physical and sales jobs thinking one might lead to a career. He was often making suggestions about improving operations and systems wherever he worked.

When crypto currencies emerged, he began reading and learning everything about them. He started buying and trading not just the larger crypto currencies like Bitcoin, Ethereum, and Monero, but many of the smaller ones as well. He was in constant contact with people around the country discussing the newest coins and opportunities. He named his dog Crypto. He had found his passion. Gabe, who could be very persuasive, convinced family members in January to invest in a bitcoin mining venture. Gabe identified where to buy the nine miners and where the best place was to locate them and soon the venture was very successful. Based on this initial six-month success Gabe was planning to raise capital for additional miners. There was great volatility and risk but Gabe loved the action and understood it. At the time of his death, he had plans to set up a podcast on understanding crypto called "The Crypto Realist." He had ideas, a vision, and a family that loved him. Those who loved him are shattered by this inexplicable loss

MEMORABLE LOSS.

Gabe is buried in Gan Shalom Cemetery in the Briones Valley, Contra Costa. Donations can be made to the charity of one's choice in Gabe's memory.
